on common ground

[ST. CLAIR HIGH SCHOOL]

Living it up

ST. CLAIR SAINTS
KNOW HOW TO LIVE IT UP.
SAINT'S SPIRIT CAN BE FOUND EVERYWHERE, WHETHER IT'S AT A FOOTBALL GAME, HOMECOMING,
OR AN ASSEMBLY. IT'S CON-
TAGIOUS. IT IS THE DIVER-SITY AT SAINT CLAIR HIGH SCHOOL THAT MAKES THE DIF-FERENCE.

Rough & Tough

Gender Bender

Just Strike a Pose

Oblivious

LEFT Completely unaware of the camera positioned on him, sophomore T.J. Linarski is caught in a cloud of smoke, boogying down near the D.J.'s table at the rock-and-roll themed Homecoming dance

Monster Mash

Schizophrenia

LEFT Senior friends Sam Domiczek, Ashley Perkins, Tiffany Dettloff, Sheryl Sturza, and Alicia Gauthier use Halloween as a chance to show their alter-egos.

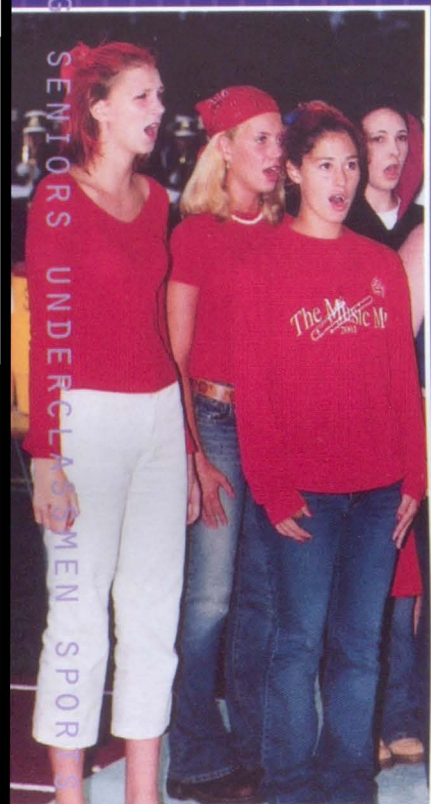

Band...Attention!

RIGHT SCHS Drum Majors bring the band to a rest position.

Multi-Talented

Holding It Out

Trick-Or-Treat

RIGHT Neither senior Ashley Coomer or her nephew Brandon could scare anyone, regardless of what time of the year it is.

Living through class

ST. CLAIR HIGH SCHOOL IS MORE THAN AN ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE, IT'S A LEARNING EXPERIENCE. THE MANY DIFFERENT PERSONALITIES TEACH US INTEGRITY, SELFLESSNESS, AND MUCH MORE. FROM EACH ORGANIZATION, WE LEARN TO APPRECIATE AND INTERACT WITH THE PEOPLE AROUND US.

I Want Candy!

Mmmmm Good

Living together

IT'S THE DIVERSE STUDENT BODY THAT KEEPS ST. CLAIR HIGH SCHOOL GOING. ATHLETES CAN TEACH US PERSISTENCE, FINE ARTS CAN TEACH US CULTURE, AND THOSE SUCCESSFUL IN ACADEMICS CAN TEACH US KNOWLEDGE. BUT WE CAN ALL LEARN SOMETHING NEW FROM OUR MERE DIFFERENCES.

Pouring Pride

Going All Out

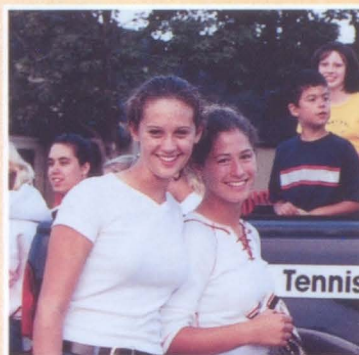

RIGHT Juniors Nora Seilhiemer, Ashley Garant, and Jamie Venia help cover the school in blue for the spirit assembly.

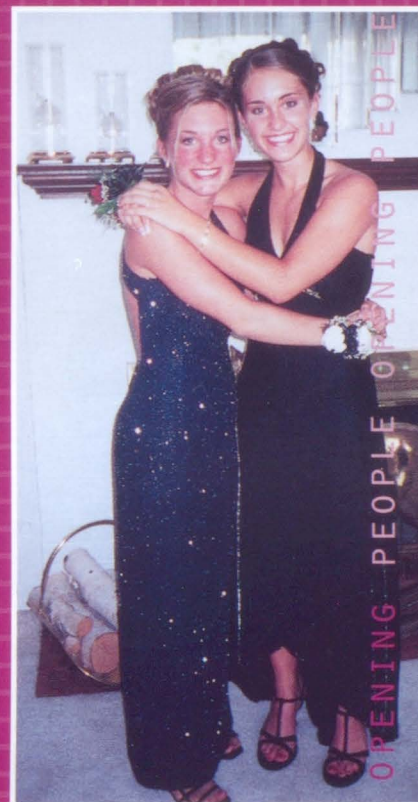

Dressed to Kill

Teammate Love

Simple Beauty

ABOVE Everything on sophomore Amber DeMara and junior Brianna Griffin sparkle, from their dresses, to their jewelry, and even down to their smiles.

Rough 'Em Up

Real Concentration

RIGHT Senior Brad Krueh focuses on making his next shot.

Fire Up Saints

RIGHT Junior Varsity Cheerleaders Stacy Goffe and Emily Sutton use their enthusiasm, bright smiles and creative cheers to hype up and involve the crowd for their support at the 2002 Homecoming Varsity Football game.

I Think I Can

ABOVE The pressure is on, but junior Erin Cyplik has confidence that she can make another free throw to add one more point to the Saints' scoreboard.

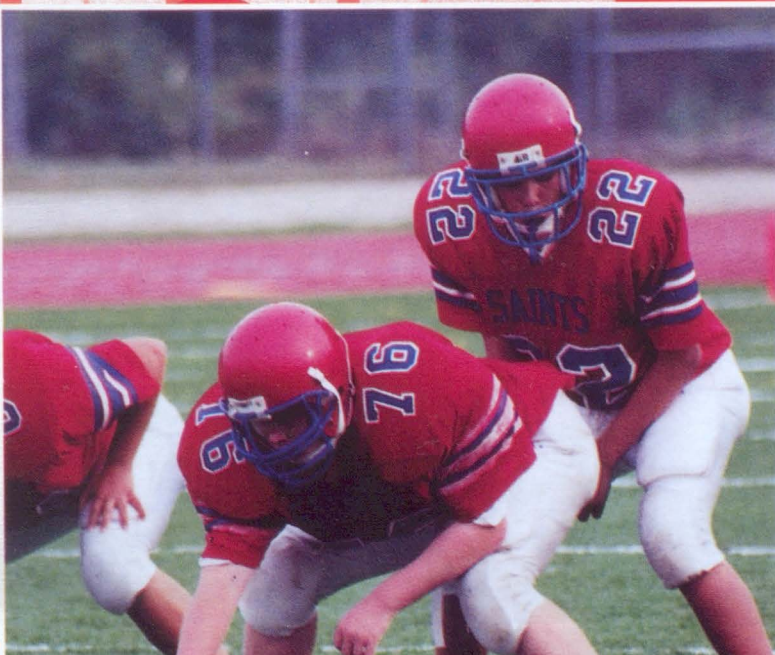

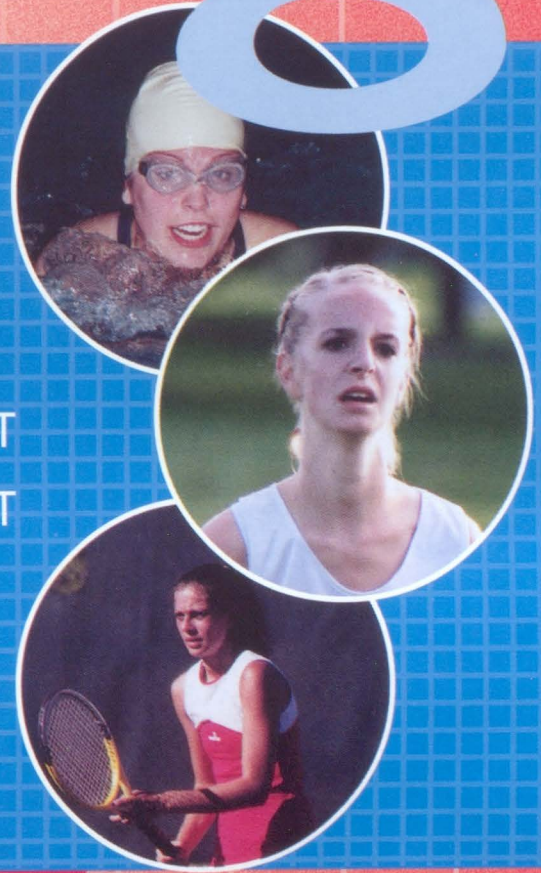

All or Nothing

RIGHT Junior Joe Linarski plays his best with more than skill, but with heart, mind, soul, and passion for the Districts game.

Winning the game

AT FIRST GLANCE, SCHOOL SPORTS APPEAR TO BE JUST ANOTHER EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITY. BUT AS ANY SCHS ATHLETE WOULD TELL YOU, IT IS MUCH MORE THAN THAT. IT IS THE HOURS OF PRACTICE, HARDWORK, AND DEDICATION THAT MAKE IT ALL WORTH IT IN THE END.

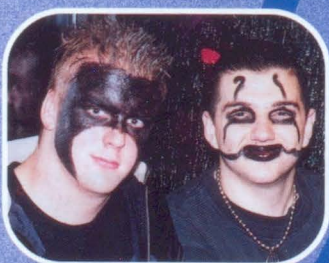

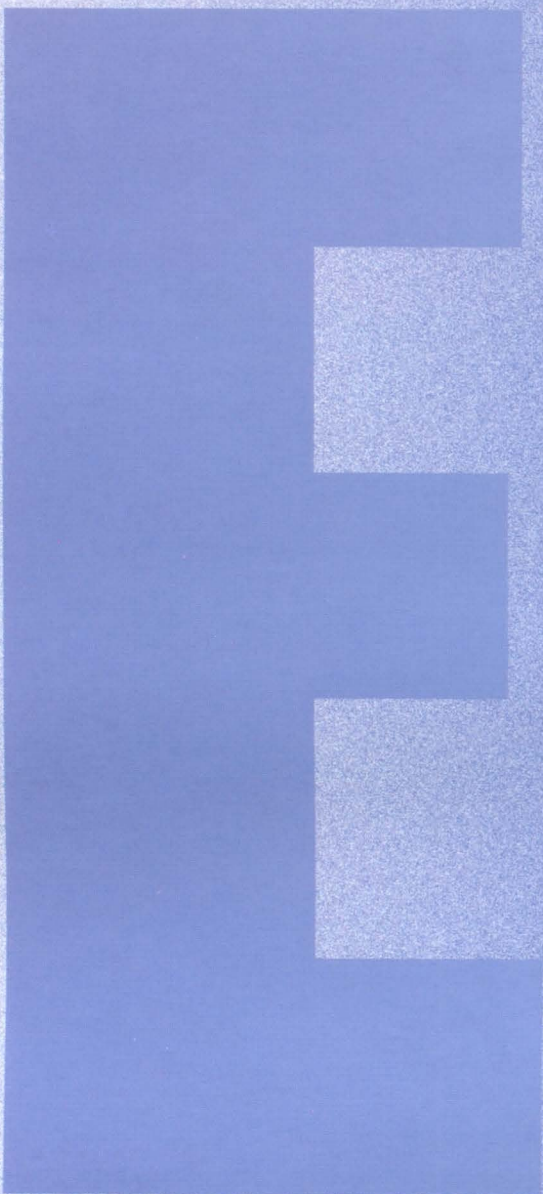

On The Offense

Looking Ahead

ABOVE Members of the Boy's Cross Country team keep pushing towards their goal, even when the going gets tough.

KISS

RIGHT PAGE These boisterous seniors don make-up and more as KISS.

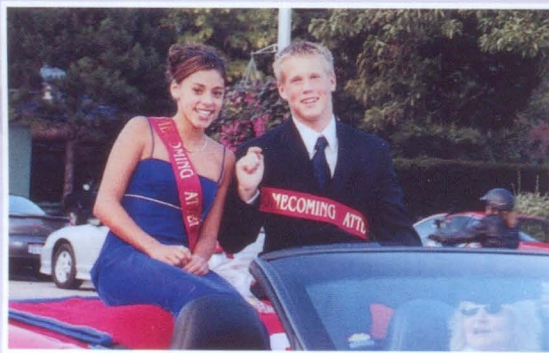

Cutie

RIGHT Mitch Neumann captures the hearts of the crowd with that gorgeous smile.

Hollywood

RIGHT Junior Court representatives and Colgate smile models Lindsay Bryan and John Plesz play the Malibu couple role mightily comfortably riding down Sunset Strip in a shiny, red corvette. Wouldn't you if you looked like that?

quote, unquote What was the best part of Spirit Week?

"My favorite part of Homecoming Spirit Week was probably when the music was playing during our five minute break because I love rock and roll!"

-Dena LaFore '06

"The best part of Homecoming Spirit Week was getting to play those games in fifth hour everyday beacuse it made the start of class right after lunch really fun."

-Dan Riley '06

"My favorite part of Spirit Week was when each class had to wear their class colors to school. That's the one the most people participated in during week."

-Sarah Schaft '04

"The best part of Homecoming Spirit Week was the assembly Friday because for the first time in four years, our class actually got involved in something."

-Lindsay Parker '03

One Last Chance

LEFT Seniors Jennifer Harr and Desiree Arnold show their Saints pride by accompanying the senior class's last attempt at a Homecoming float down the main drag.

And The Beat Goes On

BELOW The St. Clair High School Marching Band supplies the upbeat music to the Homecoming Parade, keeping the crowd happy and enthusiastic.

Playing it Cool

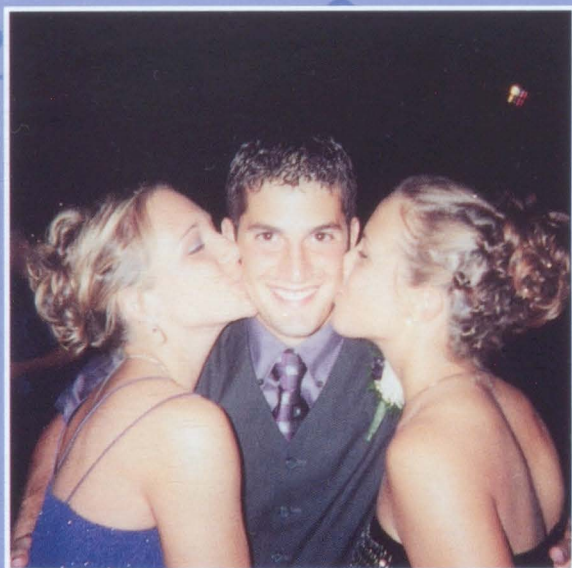

RIGHT Senior Mitch Neumann and sophomores Will Monticello and Nick Nedic look pretty smooth with their "cool guy" poses.

Are you staring at us?

BELOW Juniors Lindsay Bryan and Bethany Eisen don't waste a moment getting carefree and crazy as they dance it up long into the night.

✚ Lovin' It ✚

LEFT Jared Patterson doesn't seem to mind these two lovely ladies on either side of him.

✚ Last Hug ✚

✚ Surprise! ✚

quote, unquote What was your favorite slow dance? Why?

"My favorite slow dance was with Brittany Jones. We danced to "Lady in Red", except she was wearing blue, so I had to change all the words around."

-Jared Patterson '03

"My favorite dance was with Liz Dominick to KCi and Jojo's "All My Life" because I knew that moment we would be together one day, and I was right."

-Matt Alley '03

"My favorite slow dance was a group dance with all my friends. We sang "I'll Make Love to You" by Boyz II Men at the top of our lungs. I'll never forget that."

-Danielle Glaeser '03

"My favorite dance was with Justin Ingles to "All My Life" because it made me realize how lucky I am and how amazing my high school years have been."

Too Cute

RIGHT Brittany Jones, Ellen Klemmer, and Justin Rose had no problems switching places.

Nice Try

quote, unquote Has your outlook on stereotypical roles changed?

"No, we were still treated like girls. We couldn't tackle because we might get hurt, etc. It was total crap. We couldn't even return a punt or a fumble."

-Danna Galvin '04

"The way I look at things hasn't changed. I still believe that girls should have more sports to participate in like football, hockey, or wrestling."

-Sam Domiczek '03

"I think it is a good thing that the girls and guys reverse roles because it shows that girls can play football and that guys can be cheerleaders."

-Stacey McLeod '04

"No, it hasn't changed my outlook. I think it shows that some guys have no business being cheerleaders and some girls have no business playing football."

-Diane Lamers '03

Fabulous Five

RIGHT Kristin Jepson, Erin Cyplik, Ellen Klemmer, Rachel Cook, and Lindsay Parker capture the memory of their last Winterfest together.

Slurp it!

quote, unquote What made this year's Winterfest different than others?

"We are seniors. My friends and I "danced like nobody was watching" because it was our last Winterfest ever, and I wanted to make it the best night ever! I'll never forget how much fun we had!"

-Katie Kaczperski '03

"This year's Winterfest was different because of the fact that it got shortened because of the blizzard, and we also had a professional DJ. It was nice that it was in the gym instead of the cafeteria."

-Jessica McElreath '04

"This year's Winterfest dance was a lot different because it was moved into the gym. There was a lot more room than last year's in the cafeteria. It was a lot more fun and the DJ was awesome."

-Ashley Sommer '05

"This year's Winterfest was different than past dances because there did not seem to be as many people as there had been in other years. It seemed really small and not as fun as past years."

RIGHT PAGE Grace (J. Kindret) forces Carolyn (T. Crowley) into dance lessons.

Trouble

Chill Out

quote, unquote

What character in a play you've put on this year have you most closely related to? Why?

"The character I have most closely related to was Anne Frank because she was a real person, not to mention that it is a great feeling to be able to act like a twelve year old every now and then."

-Desiree Arnold '03

"I have most closely related to the character of Bill from 'Sure Thing.' He has this amazingly familiar habit of always saying the wrong thing at the wrong time. It reminded me of a couple of dates that I have had."

-Dan Hiebert '03

"The character I have most closely related to in a play this year was Emily from one of the one-acts. She is always obsessing over relationships in her life, and I usually do that same thing."

-Sarah Fry '05

"This year, I have most closely related myself to the character of Mrs. van Dann. It is just so easy to get into character with her. She is truly an awesome character, and I thoroughly enjoyed playing the part."

-Heather McQueary '04

Dazzling Duo

RIGHT Junior Stacy Schlaudraff and senior Katie Cedar amaze the crowd with their duet as characters "Lobutt" and "Queenie," respectively.

Fab Five

quote, unquote

What was your proudest moment and why?

"My proudest moment occurs at any curtain call. It is truly amazing to have people cheering and yelling your name. Nowhere else can you get that happy feeling when you are stealing that extra bow."

-Dave Carsley '03

"My proudest moment would be when I played the cat in 'Honk.' I got so much recognition from people in the audience that I did not even know. It just made me feel really good about the effort I put into my part."

-Dan Hiebert '03

"My proudest moment during 'Honk' was during the song, 'Together' with Katie Cedar and Dan Hiebert. I messed it up really bad, but we covered beautifully. It wasn't even noticeable."

-Stacy Schlaudraff '04

"My friend's mother told me that I did a wonderful job and made her cry when I sang, 'Every Tear a Mother Cries.' Acting is a great feeling, but feeling it has moved another's soul, in a good way, is even more priceless."

quote, unquote

What is your funniest spring break memory?

"My funniest spring break memory was when Lacey Melhberg, Megan Kronner, Stephanie Green, and I got lost in the mountains in North Carolina while belting out Celine Dion in the minivan."

-Michelle Measel '03

"When we were in Aruba, we were out one night, and heard an announcement that there was a vehicle outside that needed to be moved. We went outside and watched our van get hit by a bus, yep, by a BUS."

-Stephanie Fraley '03

"Danielle and I were swimming in the ocean. A scary man caught a shark on his fishing line and everyone was screaming, 'Shark! Shark! Get out of the water!' We just stood there looking at the giant shark."

-Katie Kaczperski '03

"Mark Ellis and I went to London, and one night, while we were there, we went to the most unexciting club in the world, and I just remember thinking that the party was better at Westminster Abby."

-Lawrence McElroy '03

quote, unquote

What made the class of 2003 pull together?

"I think what helped our class pull together this year was the idea of unifying as a whole to make this year great for all of us and to enjoy our experience, our senior year, while we still could."

-Ryan Valla '03

"I think we pulled together as a class when we finally all realized that this was our last year together, and we wanted to make our senior year a special last year with a lot of happy memories."

-Carly Wisner '03

"I think what made the class of 2003 pull together was the whole idea of being seniors! It has been great being on top, and I think we all started to realize that this is our last year together in St. Clair High School."

-Candice Gibson '03

"I think the only thing that pulled us together enough to win class of the year this year was the fact that it was our senior year of high school, and that alone was enough for us to finally pull together."

quote, unquote

What was your best moment at prom?

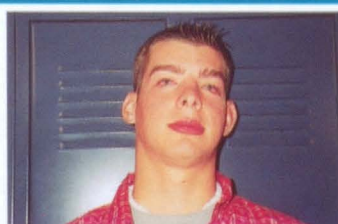

"My best moment was when I looked around my table at my senior prom and saw my four best friends, Jennifer, Amanda, Anna, and Jenelle, having a great time. I realized that it could not get any better."

-Katie Cedar '03

"My best moment was actually after prom when I spent the night sleeping in the back of a Navigator because my friends locked me out of the house when I went home to get pajamas and I was too tired to go back home."

-Anna Hermesmeier '03

"My best moment at my senior prom was a slow song near the end of the night that everyone was dancing to because my closest friends were all around me and as we danced, I sang the entire song to my girlfriend."

-Andy Brinker '03

"I don't necessarily have a single best moment. The whole thing was a blast. I have not had that much fun in a really long time. I had the best time dancing the evening away. My senior prom will be a great memory."

-Lawrence McElroy '03

Name two artistic people who have influenced your artwork.

"Adam Gavliniski would be one of the people who has influenced my art because he showed me the relationship between my life and art. Alyson Askew would be the other person who has influenced my art because she made me realize that art is all beautiful and non-beautiful things that make this world special."

-John Sluck '03

"I only have one person who has really influenced me in my art and that person is Nikki Jarnot. She taught me to take my time even though I still rush a little! She taught me the different values and techniques I could use to make my art look more realistic."

-Jamie Delor '06

"Mrs. Whisman has influenced me because she encouraged my artistic development and let me go with many of my more -um- outrageous endeavours. My art was also influenced by the late Vincent Van Gogh, because his use of vibrant color and intense emotion takes my breath away every time I view one of his works."

If you could design any machine you wanted, what would it do?

"I would design a machine that flies because I love flying, and I could experiment with different model aircrafts."

-Anthony Vito '03

"I would design a robot that could do all of my chores at home."

-Joe Syjud '03

"I would design a time machine to go back in time and correct mistakes, or go into the future to see what it holds."

-Aaron Kennedy '03

"I would design a machine to nudge me lightly to wake me up as an alarm clock. It would do this because I hate waking up to the incessant beeping of an alarm clock."

-Jason Herrick '04

"I would design a portable mouse pad and keyboard to plug into a cell phone. Also, I would create an internet ready cell phone for a small portable computer."

ROLL AND TOLL

NO

What is your opinion of the bell? Will you miss hearing the chimes?

"My grandma has that chime, so it's kind of old fashioned. When I want to hear it, I just head over to Granny's."

-Kalicia Bogan '03

"Yes, Scott Bell is a good guy. I did not know that he made chimes."

-Kasey Coburn '03

"Westminster chimes will always signify leaving."

-Anna Hermesmeyer '03

"The chimes were annoying at first, but I slowly grew immune to it."

-Joe Cilluffo '03

"Not at all. If I want to hear them I'll go buy a doorbell that has that tone."

-Hillary Clay '03

"Noway! Those bells make me feel like I'm in an elevator."

-Ellen Ninku '03

"I don't think anyone can forget the bells. In a way, I really hated them, but then they were a relief when it was 2:25."

-Jennifer Holley '03

"I have the same bell on a clock at my house, and every time I hear it at home, I always think I'm going to be late."

-Sheryl Sturza '03

"At first I didn't like it, but through the years I've gotten used to it. But I'm sure I won't miss it too much."

-Ellen Klemmer '03

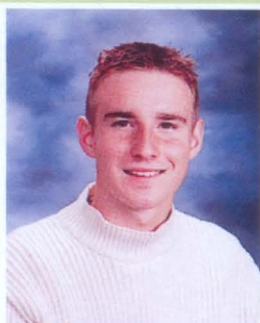

"I enjoy the bell. Just as much as I like my Fisher-Price alarm clock that I can't get rid of. I wake up to 'Yankee Doodle' everyday."

FALLING AWAY

Do you have any horror stories about losing teeth?

"When I was six years old my brother Ryan hit me accidentally in the mouth with a baseball bat. I lost my two front teeth because of it."

-Ashley Cooper '03

"When I was about six years old my front tooth was almost out. My brother and his friends tied a string to the tooth and the other end to a Nerf Arrow and shot the arrow down the hall. The tooth came out very nicely."

-Nate Eifert '03

"I tried to eat a rock when I was four and split a tooth in half."

-Eric Lee '03

"I accidentally ate one when I was eating Apple Jacks."

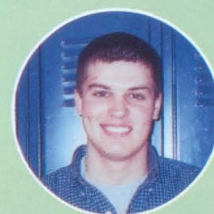

-Josh Fuller '03

"I remember eating a tootsie roll and thinking, 'Is there usually something hard in it?'"

-Terri Dauble '03

"When I was little my brother broke my Legos so I bit him, and my tooth came out on him."

-Jennifer Libby '03

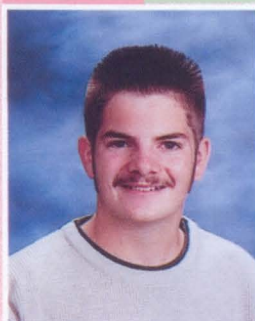

"I swallowed my one tooth thinking it was a popcom kernel."

-Kristin Johnson '03

"I watched Jason Erdman hit himself in the face with a bowling ball. He ended up would, 'Just want to look at it,' and then knocking out his front tooth." she'd yank it out."

INSPIRATION

NO

To whom do you give the most credit for helping you graduate?

"My parents for giving me my strong work ethic."

-Brad Roshak '03

"I have to say myself. If it wasn't for me, I wouldn't graduate. I am my best motivator."

-Tiffany Dettloff '03

"I give credit to all the little people I had to squash to get where I am now!"

-Martin Trombley '03

"Mrs. Daniels keeps the school clean to make the classroom a good learning environment."

-Carmen Schneider '03

"Mrs. Distelrath because all four years she has been nothing, but supportive and caring. She would listen to anything and always had advice."

-Heather Burley '03

"Mrs. Hayes. She's there for me whenever I have problems, and she helped make everything happen for me."

-Chelsea Hannert '03

"My mom. She has kept me on track as she has done for so many other kids."

-Kaitlin McCormick '03

"Me, myself, and Sparknotes.com."

-Marisa Bier '03

"My parents for pushing me to do better, telling me, 'I could,' and also for believing in me."

ON CHANGES THAT AWAIT

How will you feel when you have to leave S.C.H.S. for good?

"I don't want to leave yet. I don't think I'm ready for the real world. I wish I was five again."

-Katie Morey '04

"I'm excited. The same things happen almost every year here."

-Terry Wright '04

"I don't think I will feel anything. This school may have been my home, but it's not my whole life. As for the changes I will have to face, we'll just have to wait and see."

-Mike Kacir '04

"I will be ultimately depressed, cry for exactly nine and a half days, and then I will move on."

-Amea Loftis '04

"I'm scared. I've been depending on my family for everything until now, and it is all going to change so quickly."

-Carolyn Schlernitzauer '04

"I'm excited, yet confused on what I'm going to do. It will be a little hard, but it's a part of life. Things come and go, and you have to move on."

-Lisa Both '04

"I can't wait! A lot of people say that they will miss their friends, but that's what phones, e-mail, and cars are for. I'm looking forward to meeting new people and getting out of St. Clair."

-Lindsay Bryan '04

"I am at a comfortable point in my life. It will be hard to move on, but exciting to start a new chapter in my life."

ON THE FLASHING LIGHTS

What would you say to the officer who pulled you over?

"I wouldn't say anything to an officer who pulled me over, even if I could, because I have a lot of respect for officers."

-Dan Huber '04

"Excuse me, but why do we have to follow the speed limit, when you don't even follow the speed limit?"

-Bethany Eisen '04

"If I had a friend in the car, I would say, 'He is an asthmatic, so I have to speed home to get his inhaler.' Then he'd have to let us go."

-Katie Saunders '04

"Officer... Smith? Hey, how's your mom?"

-Amanda Leone '04

"Officer, I was speeding because there was a frog under my gas pedal, and I wanted to squash it."

-Rob Mauk '04

"I always loved a man in uniform (wink)." -Ashley Abramson '04

"Hey, don't you work for my dad?"

-Lindsey Jones '04

"If I knew there would be no repercussions, I would sing 'Life in the fast lane', then drive away after running over his foot."

-Lisa Gosselin '04

"I would tell him to give me his ticket pad and pen. I would then write him a ticket and get in his car and play with the sirens. Then I would leave."

ON PLAYING A PERFECT ME

If there was a movie about you, who would play you?

"Julia Roberts because she can play funny and very serious parts in movies, plus she is fun and caring like me."

-Shelly Holt '05

"Katie Holms. She plays the perfect role for the girl with good grades that doesn't always fit in."

-Amanda Bernard '05

"Jim Carey would play me because he is the only other individual who is as animated as I am."

-Jonathan Frettenborough '05

"Jackie Chan because I have been told that we look a lot a like."

-Amber DeMara '05

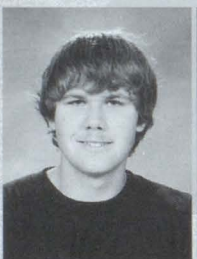

"Sarah Michelle Geller because I think that she is tough and very nice."

Mixing It Up

Heads Up

LEFT Sophomore Caitlin Stowell fears absolutely nothing by taking the brutal soccer ball "head-on."

Complete Control

BELOW Senior Carly Wisner shows her excellent ball coordination while dribbling down the soccer field.

Who do you feel has stepped up to be a team leader?

"I believe Danielle Glaeser and Carly Wisner have stepped up to be team leaders. Both have shown tremendous amounts of leadership throughout the season. Also, they have always given their teammates a goal to strive for and have always shared a positive outlook on everything, whether we won or lost."

-Ashley Heileman '04

"I feel that seniors Danielle Glaeser and Carly Winsor have stepped up to be true leaders for the team. Both have a deep passion for playing soccer, and it's contagious."

-Farren Hovis '04

"I believe Brooke Shultz has stepped up to be a real team player because she helps and directs the team to victory."

-Megan Hool '04

Varsity Girls Soccer

How has the varsity team influenced you?

"They have influenced me by showing me how hard I have to work to get better. Also, that nothing comes easy; you have to work and earn your spot on the team, it just isn't handed over."

-Lara Roggenbuck '06

"Danielle Glaeser shows what hard work is all about. She is tough on the field, a good sport, works extremely hard, and is very nice and caring. Her college scholarship proves that hard work pays off; it also is something for me to look forward to."

-Chelsea Skotzke '06

"I really liked watching the Varsity team play and practice. It makes me realize how hard they work individually and as a team. It has gotten me really excited and motivated to be on Varsity."

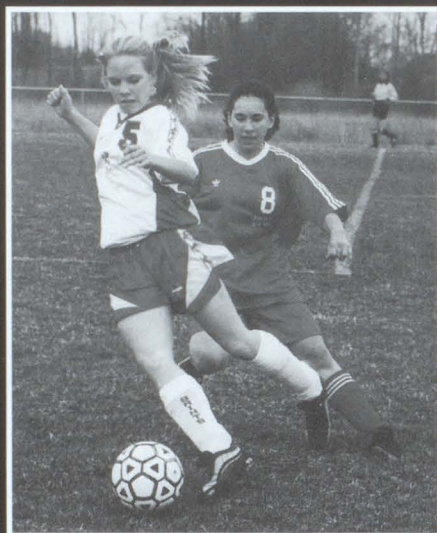

-Alyssa Suozzi '06

"I think team chemistry comes from teamwork, respect and dedication. Our love for the sport also helps bond us together. I think another huge part of team chemistry is guts! Without guts we can not overcome tough obstacles and push past our previous limits. No one on this team would ever settle for less than the best and that is what stood out to me most."

-Jennifer Koeppen '03

Leadership

ABOVE Junior Nora Seilheimer leads the girls in stretching before a meet, helping her fellow runners to focus on the event and get pumped up.

Running With Heart

ABOVE Senior Lindsay Parker puts forth her best performance at Regionals to place 2nd, qualifying her to move on to compete at the State Finals.

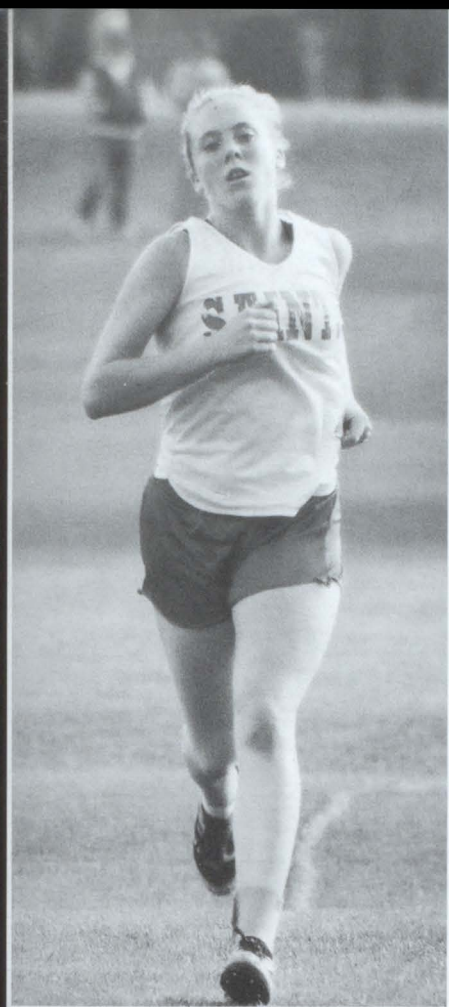

And They're Off...

ABOVE: The race begins and the Lady Saints Cross Country girls pull together to pace themselves for the win.

Going Strong

FAR TOP Sherice LeTarte pushes ahead at the Warren Cousino dual meet to support her team and to add points for the Saints.

The Last Stretch

LEFT Senior Jennifer Koeppen keeps pushing herself with every stride to place for the Saints.

Sticking Together

BELOW S. McLeod and L. O'Grady run along side to serve as a source of encouragement for each other.

What do you feel is the formula for team chemistry?

● ● ● ● ● ● ● ● ● ●
 "Support and team respect is vital for success. There are so many girls on our team who truly work hard and in return see amazing results. We're all here for the same reason: to run hard and get our team to the state meet. This cannot be done if one of us were to falter which is why we support each other no matter what,"

-Nora Seilheimer '04

"Honesty, trust, and hard work. We bond as a team during camp and the obstacles we encounter during the season draw us together,"

-Amea Loftis '04

"One word: Dunies! Nothing bonds a team like body-racking pain!"

-Jennie Hill '04

What is the most difficult part about running for Saint Clair High School?

"Waking up and having to practice. Also, giving my all in the last hundred meters of the race. I am so tired and exhausted by that time."

-Adam Blake '04

"The hardest part about running is getting up at 6AM every morning and doing our workouts."

-Anthony Kueppers '05

"Putting in all of our mileage and program fartleks."

-Cory Livingston '05

"It is all hard. If running was easy, everyone would do it."

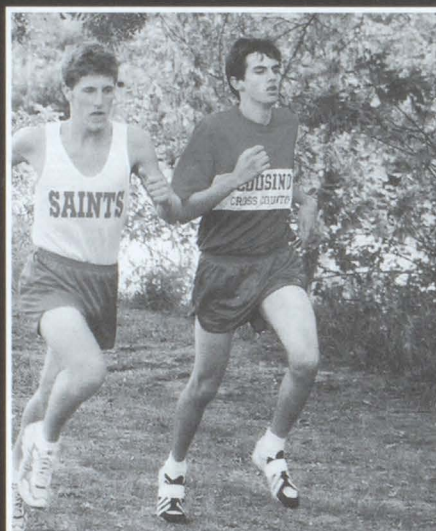

-Mark Ellis '04

Leader Of The Pack

ABOVE: Freshman Nicholas Whitmore moves in for a strong finish. Noticing that he is in the lead, he gets that extra adrenaline boost he needed to finish the race with a good time.

Double Trouble

ABOVE Senior Stephen Matthews and junior Mark Ellis are definitely trouble for their opponents as they whiz through the cross-country course with ease.

The Fabulous Five

ABOVE This eclectic group of male cross-country runners are brought together by their love for running and their love for winning as they huff and puff to the finish-line.

On The Road Again

FAR TOP: The Cross Country team sports out their unique float in the downtown parade. Each member has signed their name on the board.

What have you learned from track that you can apply to your daily life?

"It has taught me to be more social. I am always hanging out with the pole-vaulters. It has also taught me to always try to strive to become better."

-Brandon Mahaffy '06

"Track has taught me perseverance and to be all that I can be."

-Tim O'Rourke '03

"I joined track so I could play in the sandbox for the long jump."

-Jason Roggenbuck '05

"Track's taught me to keep going when it hurts. Never give up on yourself or the team."

-Malcolm Chartier '06

Kick It Up A Notch

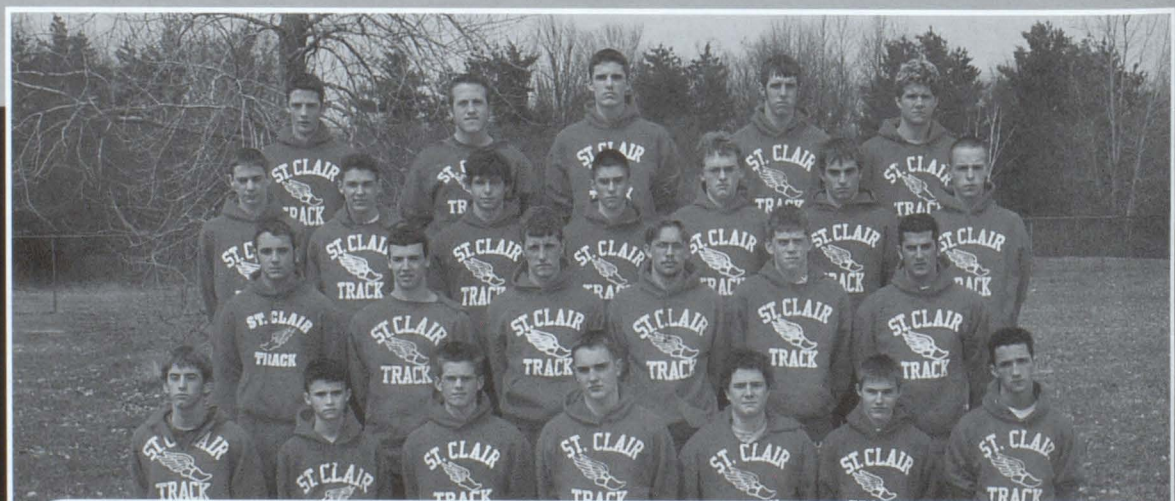

RIGHT Senior Lawrence McElroy makes the turn as he surpasses his opponent to receive yet another unfathomable time.

Up and Over

Deep Thought

BELOW Seniors Matt Alley and Brad Krul are concentrating hard on the perfect win at their League Tournament.

What was your favorite match of the year?

“ My favorite match of the year was probably against Chippewa Valley, when we won, because we shot really low and they almost had the same colors as us. That seemed pretty neat!”

-Derek VanBuskirk '04

“Out of the whole season my favorite match was when our varsity golf team shot a school record of 158.”

-Jimmy Blake '04

“My favorite match was the regional tournament at Rattle Run. I shot a 78 and placed third, and our team finished second, earning a trip to states.”

YOU'RE ONE OF A KIND !

Being number two and in the middle we've been told can be difficult,
But you have made it look easy.
We are SO proud of the young man you have become.
Follow your dreams and remember that you will always be welcomed home....But before you can be welcomed back you'll have to leave. ☺

Jen,

We are so proud of you! Your academic accomplishments are amazing, but equally important, we are proud of the person you have become.

Love, Mom, Dad, and James

This message to you is due as we wait to hear,
Whether your college choice will be far away or near.

You have inherited our love to travel and roam,
To live and experience life on your own.

The world I know, you will explore,
Is this world big enough or will you want more?

Many adventures with us you will share,
Wherever you go, we will always care.

If you should need us, we will be there.
If needed in person and always in prayer.

Wherever you decide to roam,
Please remember your way home.

We love you so much!

Our Dearest Katie,

Your sweetness and independence has marked your growth into a beautiful young woman. From the time you were a baby, you established your special place in our large, blended family. It has been a pleasure and a joy to share our love with you. As you now prepare to venture out into the world, we urge you to set your goals high and focus on those values and objectives that will enable you to bless others. You are aware of the presence of God in your life and know that as you share His love, you will receive His peace and reward. Have a great life. Be blessed!

And not necessarily when you were suppose to Brooke never had to worry about your having a higher GPA,
We were all just glad that you made it through!*

*Always a busy, active, instigating kind of boy,
Things really changed when meeting your first love, Marie.
Your eyes were opened and to your life she brought joy,
To your heart, she alone has the key.*

"I know some people who give off a lot of light (like fireflies). Because they have absorbed a lot of light themselves. They shine. This is not the kind of light you can actually see with your eyes, of course. But there are lots of parts of the spectrum of light we can't see. We experience the results of its existence."

~Robert Fulghum

For the past twelve years, Jared has been fortunate in that he has been surrounded by educators and coaches who have shared their time and experiences; "their light." His success is a tribute to all of those who have helped him along the way. We are extremely proud of all that Jared has accomplished, and, as he embarks upon the next educational step, we are confident that he too will become a source of "light" and encouragement to others.

danielle glaeser

I am an onlooker of my daughter's dance..., I'm not part of her dance, yet whenever she takes a pause and needs someone to talk to, I am there. But that special dance with the child and the future is hers.

Our Dearest Danni,
We are so proud of all you've accomplished in your life so far. You have become the wonderful young woman we prayed for. We are so thankful God chose you to be our daughter.

Love: Mom, Dad, Tommy, Nicole, and Susie

marisa ann bier

So be sure when you step, step with care and great tact, and remember that life's a Great Balancing Act. And will you succeed? Yes! You will, indeed! (98 and 3/4 percent guaranteed.)

Love,
~ Mom and Dad

May The Good Lord Be With You
Down Every Road You Roam,
And May Sunshine And Happiness
Surround You When You're Far From Home,
And May You Grow To Be Proud,
Dignified, And True,
And Do Unto Others
As You'd Have Done To You.
Be Courageous And Be Brave,
And In My Heart You'll Always Stay
Forever Young.

Carl,

Your desire to get there will take you wherever it is you want to go. You've experienced the rewards of hard work and seen the frustration of failure. You know the commitment involved in order to take achievement to the next level. We've always been so proud of you; you've filled our lives with such joy. We love you so much.

Love Always,

~Dad, Mom, and Will

Heather,

*The joy you bring.
The kind heart you have.
The smile that is always upon your face.
The accomplishments you have achieved.
Your goals and dreams are within your reach.*

*Remember:
Pain is temporary, pride is forever
Always hold onto bunny tight.
The dancing horse.*

Love,

-Mom, Dad, and Joel

Diane,
It seems like only yesterday that you were so small and your life was just beginning, And now you've grown into a beautiful and talented young woman
You're a daughter to be Proud of, and one that parent's dream of.
Your wished much love and happiness as you face the bright Possibilities that tomorrow will bring.

Dare All Your Dreams

Imagine The Impossible

Always believe in yourself

The Value of a Smile

It costs nothing, but creates much.

It enriches those who receive without impoverishing those who give.

It happens in a flash, and the memory of it sometimes lasts forever.

None are so rich they can get along without it, and none so poor but are richer for its benefit.

It creates happiness in the home, fosters goodwill in a business, and is the countersign of friends.

It is rest to the weary, daylight to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and nature's best antidote for trouble.

Yet it cannot be bought, begged, borrowed, or stolen, for it is something that is no earthly good to anyone until it is given away.

Back to the Nursery

RIGHT Mrs. Schwehofer, Mrs. Millett, Mrs. Keck, and Mrs. Hayes have a little fun as the three blind mice and the farmer's wife.

Overcoming Obstacles

ABOVE Rider Elizabeth Johnson conquers another hurdle with her AIFA horse during the St. Clair High School Equestrian team's 2002-03 show season.

Covered in Color

LEFT The sophomore class blends together to make their class pride and spirit known with their bright signs, face paint, and their boisterous voices. At this assembly WDIV presented SCHS with the Most Spirited award, which was a most fitting title.

how life took shape for schs yearbook

Since I joined the yearbook staff as a freshman, I have watched it become the well oiled machine it is today. I was intimidated by the efficiency in which Mrs. Distelrath ran this business, and even more intimidated when I was told that was going to have to keep it running after she and yearbook guru, Brandon Kling, left. They had been the breath of fresh air that was needed for life to take shape for SCHS yearbook, and after they moved on, I was expected to help fill their void. I was left behind at the end of last year, knowing that they believed I could continue to lead this organization towards the horizon, to "let the ride carry me away", but I knew that I was not going to be able to do it alone. In realizing this, my only worry was whether or not our new all-girls staff was up to the challenge of meeting on common ground.

The summer was a blur of several meeting with our new advisor, Patrica Keck, a couple long, hot sessions in the yearbook room, and a staff picnic. Still, as the start of the school year was approaching, I did not know whether or not this new staff would accept the challenge we faced, but soon my fear would be assuaged. Much to my surprise and dismay, the books arrived several days before school started, which meant that the staff was going to have to jump right in without having a chance to get their toes wet. With a couple phone calls the night before the first day of school, I managed to get everyone into school an hour and a half before school started so we could begin the long, tedious task of sorting the books for delivery. Yet again, I was met with surprise as they jumped in with a fervor that I was not expecting. I was grateful for this, but I questioned if it would last. But it did.

This year, girls, you have stepped up to the great challenge of having to learn the in's and out's of yearbook in a short period of time, with only a new advisor, several returning members, and me, a dubious and somewhat unexperienced editor-in-chief. We've had our ups and our downs this year, but you have all met each challenge head on. Now, as SCHS yearbook enters yet another chapter, I give you the same challenge I was given: let life continue to take shape. It is a mighty task to accept, and next year will be even harder than this year was, but know this: you cannot do it alone. Only together, only on common ground, will life continue to take shape for SCHS Yearbook, and ultimately, for you.

thank you

Mrs. Psciuk,

Thanks for your endless dedication to providing us with first-rate photographs, and for always pulling through when we need you!

Mrs. Kups, Mrs. Zoeplitz, Mrs. Rinehart, and Mrs. Steenland:

Thanks for always being there whenever we needed assistance. From using the telephone to getting labels to printing out schedules, you have all always helped us with a smile!

Mr. Marion:

Thank you for providing us with valuable insight into the art of photography!

Mrs. Emrich, Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Millett, and Mrs. Short:

Thanks for giving us a hand when we needed extra pictures in a pinch!

Mrs. Distelrath:

Thanks for your complete willingness to give us a hand, even though yearbook is technically not supposed to be your burden any longer. Without us having to ask, you have always offered your assistance with a smile.

The student body and community:

Thank you for your continued support and sponsorship of the yearbook. Without you, this endeavor would be completely impossible.

Mrs. Keck:

Many thanks for putting up with us this year, and for having the patience to become the student again. Without your time, dedication, and your enormous heart, this year could have been more of a struggle than it was!
